

VALCARES white 2023

Wine designation: Valcarès - Mas de Valérieole
IGP Pays des Bouches du Rhône - Terre de Camargue

Colour/tint: White

Grape varieties: 100% Chardonnay

Alcoholic strength: 13%vol

Organic Vine Growing

Soil: Limestone, clay, sand and silt left behind by the Rhône

Harvest: At night-time

Wine-making process: 70% vinified in concrete tanks & 30% vinified in oak barrels

Aging: The 30% vinified in oak barrels are then aged on lies for 4 months

Bottle: 75cl Bordelaise "Elegance"

Cork: Vinolok

Box: 6 standing bottles

Tasting: Golden colour with green hints. The nose has lemon verbena tea aromas, coupled with box tree, banana and acacia scents. The nose is complex and pleasing. The mouth is more intense on ripened banana flavours, grilled hazelnut and brioche. It's a voluptuous white wine, full-bodied and with a great freshness.

Serving temperature: 12°C

Wine and food pairings: buffet dinner/walking dinner, various sea food, cooked oysters, fish with a tomato & herb sauce, grilled poultry.

Insight : Valcarès is the « Milord » sang by Edith Piaf, he is invited to the table, he seats comfortably on a chair, and he stands there like a king! Be it a starter and a main course: he will go along with everything and everyone!
